DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The amendment filed on 11/21/08 has been considered. Applicant's arguments are deemed to be persuasive-in-part.

Claims 1-12 and 18 are pending.

The objection to the specification is withdrawn in view of applicant's amendment.

The rejection of claims 3 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, is withdrawn in view of applicant's amendment.

The rejection of claims 1-9 and 11-12 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, is withdrawn in view of applicant's amendment.

Response to Arguments

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 18 remains rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabled for a method of reducing of inhibiting invasiveness and metastasis of tumor cells expressing Gb3, does not reasonably provide enablement for the prevention of invasiveness and metastasis of tumor cells. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. The reasons for this rejection are of record in the paper mailed 5/23/08.

Applicant again argues that the publications cited by the Examiner are outdated especially in view of the fact that there are several cancer vaccines that have been tested in the clinic (see Scholm et al). While the field of cancer vaccines is evolving, it is clear that the vaccines on the market underwent rigorous and extensive testing before they became available. There is no correlation between the assays (either in vitro or in vivo) used in the reference that enable the cancer vaccines in the clinic and the assays used in the instant invention. In the absence of any correlation and in view of the unpredictability in the field, the claims are not enabled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.

4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-12 and 18 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over LaCasse et al Blood vol. 88 p. 1561 (1995) in view of Marcato et al Infection and Immunity vol. 70 p. 1279 (3/2002), Strockbine et al J. Bacteriology vol. 170 p. 1116 (3/98), Accession Number 2002:397002 (3/2002), Green US 2002/0081307 and applicant's admission on page 6, lines 1-2 of the specification. The reasons for this rejection are of record in the paper mailed 5/23/08.

Applicant argues each reference separately. Specifically, applicant argues that LaCasse does not meet all the limitations of the claims. This is why the rejection is under 35 USC 103 and not 35 USC 102. The Examiner acknowledges the differences. Applicant argues that the Marcato reference does not cure these differences because the reference does not teach the claimed methods. This reference was not cited for this reason. Marcato was cited to show why one skilled in the art would chose the B subunit. Applicant has not attacked the combination of the references and the reasons for putting these together.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
